I'm Jessica

BUT YOU CAN CALL ME JESS

Hi friend!! I'm so glad you're here and considering me for your special day! It truly means the world to me that you thought of my little business and I. About 9 years ago when I was only 16 years old I fell in love with photography. I was in awe of the idea that I could freeze such special moments in time. Moments that will one day become family heirlooms. WOW, how priceless. Ever since then I have been perfecting my craft to be the best I can possibly be for my amazing clients. This dream of mine became a reality so fast thanks to people like you!! I truly hope I can be apart of your day and give you memories of a lifetime.

This timeframe allows for coverage of the most meaningful highlights—your vows, portraits, first dances, and celebration with loved ones—while keeping the focus on the heart of the day. It's ideal for couples who value photography and want the freedom to savor each moment while it's beautifully preserved.

Add Ons

Wanting additional coverage of the day? A boudoir session for your soon to be spouse? A second engagement session?

01

Second photographer ($270-$450)

Hiring a second photographer on your wedding day allows your story to be captured more fully and seamlessly from multiple perspectives. While one photographer focuses on the main moments, the second can document candid reactions, alternate angles, and meaningful in-between moments that might otherwise go unseen. This is especially valuable during key parts of the day—such as getting ready, the ceremony, and the reception—when events happen simultaneously. A second photographer also ensures more comprehensive coverage of your guests, details, and emotions, resulting in a richer, more complete gallery that truly reflects the depth and energy of your wedding day.

02

Boudoir session $350 + studio fee

A boudoir session is an incredibly meaningful and personal gift for your soon-to-be husband because it celebrates your confidence, beauty, and the intimacy you share together. It's a one-of-a-kind gift that goes far beyond anything store-bought—something deeply thoughtful, romantic, and created just for him. A boudoir session also captures this special season of your life, allowing you to step into your wedding day feeling empowered and confident. The result is a timeless, intimate keepsake that honors your love and gives him a glimpse of you through your most confident, authentic lens.

Additional Engagement Session $350-$500

Have a second engagement shoot in mind!? All my wedding packages include a one hour engagement shoot but I am all for multiple shoots! This is such a special time in your lives so live it up!! this is a one to two hour shoot at one or two locations of your choice and you will receive your edited images on an online high resolution gallery.
